Welcome to the 2013 Challenge!
To meet the Premier’s Reading Challenge you need to do these things:

- Read 15 books before September 6th.
  - 10 books must come from the Reading Challenge list.
  - 5 books can be your own choice.

- Keep a record of the books you read and get a parent to sign.

- When this list is full give it to your teacher-librarian

- Keep your online record up to date

- Sign the consent form
Welcome to the 2013 Premiers’ Reading Challenge

The 2013 Victorian Premiers’ Reading Challenge is now open

As patron of the Victorian Premiers’ Reading Challenge, and on behalf of the former Premiers John Cain, Joan Kirner, Jeff Kennett, Steve Bracks and John Brumby, who joined me again last year in supporting this important literacy initiative, I am delighted to declare the ninth annual Challenge open.

For the first time in 2013 we welcome children from the Early Childhood sector in discovering the magic of books. I hope this year’s Challenge will inspire more children and young adults than ever before to foster a love of reading.

Last year over 220,000 Victorian students read more than 4 million books. Still, I am confident that last year’s totals will be beaten in what promises to be an even bigger and better Challenge than ever before.

The Challenge is not just about reading in English. In fact, the Challenge is open to reading in any language. Students can read, or be read to, children’s stories in Arabic or Spanish, classic comedies in French, the Ramayana in Hindi, Chinese poetry and more.

Together we look forward to hearing of the discoveries and achievements of those who accept this year’s Challenge.

Let the reading adventures begin.
Logging on

Enter your

📖 User name

(student number e.g. gcar0001)

📖 Password

(same as user name. e.g. gcar0001)

Development Unit (readingchallenge@edumail.vic.gov.au)
Completing the list

When you have reached 15 books on your list you have completed the Challenge.

You may add more to the list as you continue reading
Selecting books

- Look for these spine labels on the books

- Use the online search facility to search for books (especially good for genres)
Finishing Date
Friday 6th September

Paper record must be complete and handed to your teacher-librarian.

Online record must be complete and verified by your teacher-librarian.
Extra things you may not know

You can suggest books for the Challenge. Submit your suggestion on the form found under the books link.