

Residential address check

For enrolment of students in Victorian Government schools

When seeking to enrol your child in a Victorian government school, you may be requested to provide supporting documentation. This documentation will assist schools in verifying your permanent residence.

Your child's permanent residence is the address at which they permanently reside at the time of enrolment. Documents provided as per the 100-point residential address table should match the details recorded on the school enrolment application, including parent's/carer's name and address.

Any combination of the following documents is acceptable, as long as they add up to at least 100 points.
